Discrimination based on race, gender, age, disability, or other protected characteristics is prohibited under laws such as Title VII of the Civil Rights Act. The hospitality industry must also implement policies to prevent sexual harassment and provide training to employees.

Employee Rights and Benefits

Issues related to employee benefits, family leave, and workplace safety are governed by laws like the Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) and the Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA). Compliance ensures a fair and safe work environment.

Hospitality venues must adhere to fire safety codes, including proper exit signage, sprinkler systems, and emergency planning. Compliance with building codes ensures structural safety and accessibility.
