Johto Region Pokémon

The Johto region is the primary setting of Pokémon Soul Silver and features the original 251 Pokémon from the Johto and Kanto Pokédex. Players begin their journey here, encountering Pokémon native to this region before expanding their adventure to Kanto. The Johto Pokédex includes various types, from starter Pokémon to common wild encounters and evolved forms.

Starter Pokémon

At the start of the game, players can choose from one of three starter Pokémon, each representing a different type and evolutionary line. These starters are vital for early-game battles and have distinct advantages against various opponents.

- Chikorita – Grass type
- Cyndaquil – Fire type
- Totodile – Water type

Common Johto Pokémon

Throughout Johto, trainers will encounter a wide variety of Pokémon, including early-route species, forest dwellers, and cave inhabitants. These Pokémon often appear in multiple evolutionary stages and cover many elemental types.

- Pidgey, Pidgeotto – Flying/Normal types common in early routes
- Zubat, Golbat – Frequent cave dwellers with Flying/Poison typing
- Sentret, Furret – Normal type found in grass and plains
- Hoothoot, Noctowl – Nocturnal Flying/Normal types
- Geodude, Graveler – Rock/Ground types found in mountainous areas

Johto Regional Evolutions

Soul Silver features several unique regional evolutions and Pokémon with new forms, expanding the diversity of the Johto Pokédex. Players can evolve certain Pokémon through leveling, trading, or using special items.

- Bayleef (evolution of Chikorita)
- Quilava (evolution of Cyndaquil)
- Croconaw (evolution of Totodile)
- Ampharos (evolution of Flaaffy)
- Heracross, a Bug/Fighting type often found in forests

Kanto Region Pokémon

After completing the Johto region, players gain access to the neighboring Kanto region, where an additional roster of Pokémon becomes available. This expansion adds another 151 Pokémon from the original Kanto Pokédex, allowing players to encounter classic favorites from the first generation games.

Iconic Kanto Pokémon

This section of the game introduces many well-known Pokémon that are iconic in the franchise, including starters, gym leaders' Pokémon, and late-game challenges.

- Bulbasaur, Ivysaur – Grass/Poison starter line
- Charmander, Charmeleon – Fire starter line
- Squirtle, Wartortle – Water starter line
- Pikachu – Electric type mascot of the Pokémon series
- Onix, Steelix – Rock/Ground and Steel/Ground types found in caves

Kanto Wild and Route Pokémon

Players can find numerous wild Pokémon in Kanto's varied environments such as forests, caves, and water bodies. These Pokémon provide opportunities to complete the Pokédex and build balanced teams.

- Caterpie, Metapod – Early forest stage Bug types
- Rattata, Raticate – Common Normal types found on routes
- Magikarp, Gyarados – Water types available in rivers and lakes
- Abra, Kadabra – Psychic types found in certain locations

Legendary and Mythical Pokémon in Soul Silver

Soul Silver features several legendary and mythical Pokémon that are highly sought after for their rarity and powerful stats. These Pokémon often require special conditions or locations to encounter and catch.

Johto Legendary Pokémon

The Johto region is home to several legendary Pokémon that play a significant role in the game's storyline and post-game content.

- Raikou – Electric type roaming legendary
- Entei – Fire type roaming legendary
- Suicune – Water type roaming legendary, also featured in the storyline
- Lugia – Psychic/Flying legendary found in the Whirl Islands
- Ho-Oh – Fire/Flying legendary located at the top of the Bell Tower

Kanto Legendary Pokémon

After accessing Kanto, players can seek out the Kanto legendary Pokémon, which include the powerful trio and other unique legendaries.

- Articuno – Ice/Flying type found in the Seafoam Islands
- Zapdos – Electric/Flying type located in the Power Plant
- Moltres – Fire/Flying type residing in the Mt. Silver area
- Mewtwo – Psychic type found deep inside the Cerulean Cave

Mythical Pokémon

While some mythical Pokémon like Mew are not directly available in Soul Silver without events, others can be obtained through special means or distributions, adding to the completionist's goals.

Special Event and Unobtainable Pokémon

Certain Pokémon in Soul Silver are accessible only via special events, trades, or external methods. These include rare event distributions and Pokémon that cannot be captured through normal gameplay.

Event-Exclusive Pokémon

Throughout the game's lifespan, Nintendo and affiliated organizations held special events distributing rare Pokémon such as the following.

- Mew – Event-exclusive Mythical Pokémon
- Celebi – Another Mythical Pokémon distributed at special promotions
- Jirachi and Deoxys – Typically available through special event distributions

Unobtainable Pokémon in Normal Gameplay

Some Pokémon cannot be caught in Soul Silver through regular in-game methods and require trading or external events to add to the Pokédex.

- Gen 3 Pokémon – Absent from the Johto and Kanto Pokédexes
- Some event legendaries – Only available via mystery gifts

Tips for Completing the Pokédex in Soul Silver

Completing the list of Pokémon in Soul Silver requires careful planning, exploration, and sometimes trading. Trainers should be aware of the various locations, evolution methods, and event opportunities to achieve full completion.

Exploration and Location Awareness

Many Pokémon are location-specific, appearing only in certain routes, caves, or water bodies. Using fishing rods, surfing, and exploring different times of day can reveal different Pokémon species.

Trading and Evolution

Certain Pokémon only evolve through trading, such as Kadabra, Machoke, and Haunter. Utilizing link trades with other players is essential to complete evolutions and fill the Pokédex.

Utilizing In-Game Events and Mystery Gifts

Participating in in-game events and receiving mystery gifts expands the range of obtainable Pokémon, especially Mythical ones. Keeping an eye on official announcements and event opportunities is beneficial.

Using the Pokégear and Radio

The Pokégear radio can be tuned to different stations to attract specific Pokémon and aid in locating rare species, enhancing the efficiency of Pokédex completion.

1. Explore all routes thoroughly at different times
2. Use fishing rods, surfing, and diving where available
3. Trade with other players to evolve certain Pokémon
4. Participate in events to obtain Mythical Pokémon
5. Track legendary Pokémon carefully using Pokégear and in-game clues
