Classic Love Poems in Spanish

Here are some classic love poems in Spanish, along with their English translations. These poems reflect the timeless beauty of love and can inspire your own expressions of affection.

Pablo Neruda's "Si tú me olvidas"

Spanish:

Si tú me olvidas,
quiero que sepas
una cosa.
Tú sabes cómo es esto:
si miro la luna de cristal,
la rama roja
del lento otoño
en mi ventana,
si toco junto al fuego
la impalpable ceniza
o el arrugado cuerpo
de la leña,
todo me lleva a ti,
como si todo lo que existe,
aromas, luz, metales,
fuesen pequeños barcos
que navegan
hacia las islas tuyas que me esperan.

English Translation:

If you forget me,
I want you to know
one thing.
You know how it is:
if I look at the crystal moon,
the red branch
of the slow autumn
at my window,
if I touch beside the fire
the impalpable ash
or the wrinkled body
of the firewood,
everything leads me to you,
as if everything that exists,
aromas, light, metals,
were little boats
that sail
toward your islands that wait for me.

This poem beautifully expresses the idea that love is omnipresent, and even in moments of solitude, thoughts of the beloved linger.

Mario Benedetti's "Te Quiero"

Spanish:

Te quiero
sin saber cómo,

ni cuándo,
ni de dónde,
te quiero directamente
sin problemas ni orgullo:
así te quiero
porque no soy yo
o soy yo,
tú eres tú
y yo soy yo
y a veces
te quiero un poco
y a veces
te quiero mucho
y a veces
te quiero tanto
que me duele.

English Translation:

I love you
without knowing how,
or when,
or from where,
I love you directly
without problems or pride:
that's how I love you
because I am not me
or I am me,
you are you
and I am I
and sometimes

I love you a little
and sometimes
I love you a lot
and sometimes
I love you so much
that it hurts.

Benedetti captures the complexity of love, illustrating how it can fluctuate in intensity yet remains a constant force in our lives.

de amar y ser amado.
Eres el sol
que ilumina mi vida,
y cada latido de mi corazón

te pertenece.

English Translation:

It is you,
the whisper of my dreams,
