Color Palette

Nike's color palette is bold and dynamic, with a primary focus on black, white, and a vibrant shade of orange (often referred to as "Nike Orange"). This color scheme conveys energy and confidence. The guidelines surrounding color usage include:

- Primary Colors: Black and white are the main colors, used for most branding materials.

Guidelines for typography usage include:

1. Hierarchy: Establish a clear hierarchy using font sizes and weights for different levels of information.
