Creating Effective Practice Sessions

2. Timed Quizzes: Conduct timed practice quizzes to simulate the pressure of the actual competition. This can help improve response times and build confidence.
3. Discussion Sessions: After answering questions, hold discussions about the answers. This allows team members to share perspectives and deepen their understanding of the material.
4. Role-playing: Take turns being quizmasters and contestants. This role reversal can make preparation more engaging and help everyone become more comfortable with the material.
