OSRS 99 Range Guide

Achieving level 99 in Ranged in Old School RuneScape (OSRS) is a significant milestone for any player. This skill allows players to deal damage from a distance, making it essential for various PvE and PvP scenarios. In this guide, we'll explore the most efficient ways to train your Ranged skill from level 1 to 99 while considering the various methods, gear, and strategies you can employ along the way.

Understanding Ranged in OSRS

Ranged is one of the key combat skills in OSRS, enabling players to use bows, crossbows, and thrown weapons. Training Ranged can be beneficial for various reasons:

- Versatility in Combat: Ranged attacks allow players to engage enemies from a distance, reducing the damage taken.
- Bossing and PvM: High Ranged levels are crucial for effectively fighting bosses and participating in team activities.
- PvP: In Player vs. Player combat, Ranged offers a way to attack while staying out of melee range.

Training Methods for Ranged

When it comes to training Ranged, players have several options. Below are methods categorized by level ranges, including experience rates and recommended gear.

Levels 1-20: The Early Grind

- Equipment: Bronze or Iron arrows and a shortbow.
- Location: Cows in Lumbridge or chickens are popular choices.
- Experience Rate: Around 10,000 XP per hour.

Recommended Training Method:

1. Equip a shortbow and bronze arrows.
2. Head to a cow or chicken spawn.
3. Use the shortbow to kill these creatures.
4. Collect the dropped bones and feathers to earn additional profit.

Levels 20-55: The Standard Training Phase

- Equipment: Oak shortbow with Oak arrows or Steel arrows.

- Location: Hill Giants in Edgeville Dungeon or Lesser Demons in Karamja Volcano.
- Experience Rate: 20,000 to 40,000 XP per hour.

Recommended Training Method:

1. Equip an Oak shortbow and a quiver of Oak or Steel arrows.
2. Choose Hill Giants for their high hitpoints and accessibility.
3. Use the Protect from Missiles prayer if fighting Lesser Demons to minimize damage.

Levels 55-70: Efficient Training with Chinchompas

- Equipment: Red chinchompas or the best available ranged weapon.
- Location: Monkey Madness II caves or the Dagannoth Kings.
- Experience Rate: 40,000 to 70,000 XP per hour.

Recommended Training Method:

1. Obtain Red chinchompas through hunting or purchasing.
2. Use them in crowded areas where you can hit multiple targets.
3. This method is costly but provides excellent experience rates.

Levels 70-99: Endgame Training

- Equipment: Karil's crossbow or the best available ranged weapon, along with Bolt racks or high-tier ammunition.
- Location: Nightmare Zone or various bosses like Vorkath.
- Experience Rate: 80,000+ XP per hour.

Recommended Training Method:

1. At level 70, switch to Karil's crossbow for its high damage output.
2. Engage in activities like the Nightmare Zone for consistent experience and profit.
3. Alternatively, bossing (like Vorkath) can yield high experience and valuable drops.

Alternative Training Methods

If you're looking for variety or want to incorporate different training styles, consider the following methods:

Impact of Prayer and Equipment Bonuses

Using Prayer potions and equipping items that enhance your Ranged damage can significantly improve your experience rates. Items to consider include:

- Archer's Ring: Increases your Ranged damage.
- God books: Provide passive bonuses.

- Prayer potions: Maintain your prayer points for protection.

Activities and Mini-Games

Several mini-games and activities can also contribute to Ranged training:

- The Fight Cave: Offers a challenging environment to train Ranged.
- Barrows: Provides Ranged experience and valuable loot.
- Soul Wars: Offers a unique way to train while engaging with other players.

Tips for Efficient Ranged Training

To maximize your Ranged training experience, consider the following tips:

- Use an XP-boosting item: Items like the Amulet of Fury can enhance your XP rates.
- Train in a group: Teaming up can help kill monsters faster and provide more experience.
- Stay organized: Keep your inventory stocked with items like food and potions to minimize downtime.
- Utilize the best gear: Invest in the best possible equipment within your budget to increase your damage output.

Conclusion

Achieving 99 Ranged in OSRS is a rewarding journey filled with various training methods, gear options, and strategies. Whether you choose to grind through traditional methods or opt for more advanced techniques like bossing or using chinchompas, the key is to find what works best for you and stick with it.

With dedication and the right approach, you'll soon find yourself reaching level 99 Ranged, ready to take on the toughest challenges in Gielinor. Happy training, and may your arrows always hit their mark!
