Planning Your Adventure

When preparing for a trip with a Rogue River Guide Service, there are several key considerations to keep in mind:

Choosing the Right Trip

- Skill Level: Assess your skill level and choose a trip that matches your experience. Beginners may prefer calmer waters, while experienced adventurers might seek more challenging rapids.
- Duration: Decide how long you want to spend on the river. Options range from short half-day trips to extended multi-day excursions.

What to Bring

- Clothing: Wear quick-drying clothes, appropriate footwear, and a swimsuit if you plan to get wet.
- Sun Protection: Bring sunscreen, sunglasses, and a hat to protect against sun exposure.
- Personal Items: Consider bringing a waterproof bag for personal items, a camera, snacks, and any necessary medications.

Best Time to Visit

- Spring (March to June): This is the prime season for white-water rafting due to snowmelt, creating thrilling rapids.
- Summer (July to September): Ideal for fishing and calmer rafting experiences. The weather is warm, and the scenery is lush.
- Fall (October): A great time for those interested in fishing, as salmon runs peak in the fall.
